

RAMSEY COUNTY COMMUNITY HUMAN SERVICES
VOLUNTEER SERVICES

Supplementing staff to benefit clients

Volunteer Opportunity: Interpreter

Thank you for your interest in volunteering with Ramsey County Community Human Services, there are many meaningful and rewarding ways in which you can volunteer your time.

We are currently seeking bilingual (Hmong/English) volunteers to serve as interpreters to assist human services staff to effectively and efficiently serve non-English speaking clients by translating and reverse translating Hmong and English and to perform related duties. Volunteers must be at least 16 years of age.

We offer flexible scheduling and a volunteer benefits package. Volunteering is a great way to make a contribution and make a positive impact on the services provided to the citizens of Ramsey County.

There is formal process to become a RCCHS volunteer that includes completion of a written application, personal/professional reference checks, an interview with the Volunteer Coordinator, as well as a Bureau of Criminal Apprehension background check and Adult/Child Protection checks.

All volunteers are provided a general orientation, and position specific training. All volunteers are eligible for certain benefits including reimbursement for mileage, parking, or bus fare.
