Hong Kong films continued...

JAN 6 & 7 at midnight;

JAN 7 at 11am Project A (A計劃)

It is Hong Kong at the turn of the century. Jackie Chan plays a Marine Policeman. Full of fun & great acrobatics. Along with other martial arts star Samu Hung & Yuen Biao Project A has made box-office history wherever it has played.

Project A

JAN 13, 14 & 21 at midnight;

JAN 14 at 11am Project A Part II (A計劃 II)

The best sequel you can imagine. Police Superintendent Chun is a cop that acts more like a crook. To put an end to Chun's actions, Inspector Dragon Ma (Jackie Chan) is assigned to head one of Chun's precincts. When Ma begins to interfere with Chun's dubious actions, Chun tries to set him up for demotion...& murder. But with Ma, his men, Chinese revolutionaries, and reformed pirates from the previous adventure after him, Chun doesn't stand a chance.

Project A Part II

JAN 20 & 28 at midnight;

JAN 21 at 11am Treasure Hunter (花旗少林)

Chow Yun-Fat's newest comedy "hero adventure." He plays an American-born Chinese who works for the CIA. In his new mission, he is to go to China to bring back a woman with special powers. The last fight scene is full of gunshots & explosions!
