Mar 11 at 11am Once a Thief (縱橫四海)

In the last John Woo film before he left Hong Kong for Hollywood, two of Hong Kong's best partners, Chow-Yun Fat & Leslie Cheung, are reunited. Along with Cherie Chung, they play a group of thieves. In their mission, Chow gets into a road accident while rescuing Leslie. Believing that Chow is dead, Leslie & Cherie get married & try to break away from the local gang. But Chow returns with a plan for revenge to find out who betrayed them. With John Woo directing this bizarre love story, there are sure to be many original action scenes in store.

The New Legend of Shaolin (少林五祖)

A 360° turn for Jet Li -- playing a serious Shaolin militia leader, Hung Fey Kwun, after his success with "The Legend of Fong Sai Yuk." Hung returns home to find his wife & family massacred due to an unjust court order issued by the Ching Dynasty authorities. Fugitives on the run, Li with his son, venture to exact revenge upon their betrayer. Great design of fight choreography between the father & son as they fight together against the enemy. Many creative new weapons & characters -- as seen in sci-fi movies.

李連杰·邱淑貞 主演

Fight Back to School III

If you like "Hot Shots Part Deux" you will die for this one! Hong Kong's "Jim Carry," Stephen Chiau, is back as police officer, undercover extraordinaire. As funny & ridiculous as part I, this time he is sent to investigate the murder of millionaire Million Wong, to whom Chiau has an uncanny resemblance, by posing as Wong himself. Through many misunderstandings & mistakes, Chiau thinks he has the answer -- only to find that his girlfriend Min is dating the murder suspect. A brilliant, zany spoof on the movie Basic Instinct.

MAR 31 & APR 8 at midnight

APR 1 at 11am Wonder Seven

Newest Michelle Khan film! She along with All-China gymnastics champion Lee Ning form a very fresh combination. Add to that famous fight choreography director Ching Siu-Tung's prowess with period actions pieces, & the result is a stunt filled, action-packed spectacle. Wonder Seven is about seven martial artists, each with different skills, who work to destroy international criminal organizations. In the chaos, their leader Fey is rescued by a mystery woman, Ying. Together with the Robin Hood-like Ying, they raid the villains' den, and, in a battle to the death, destroy the bad
